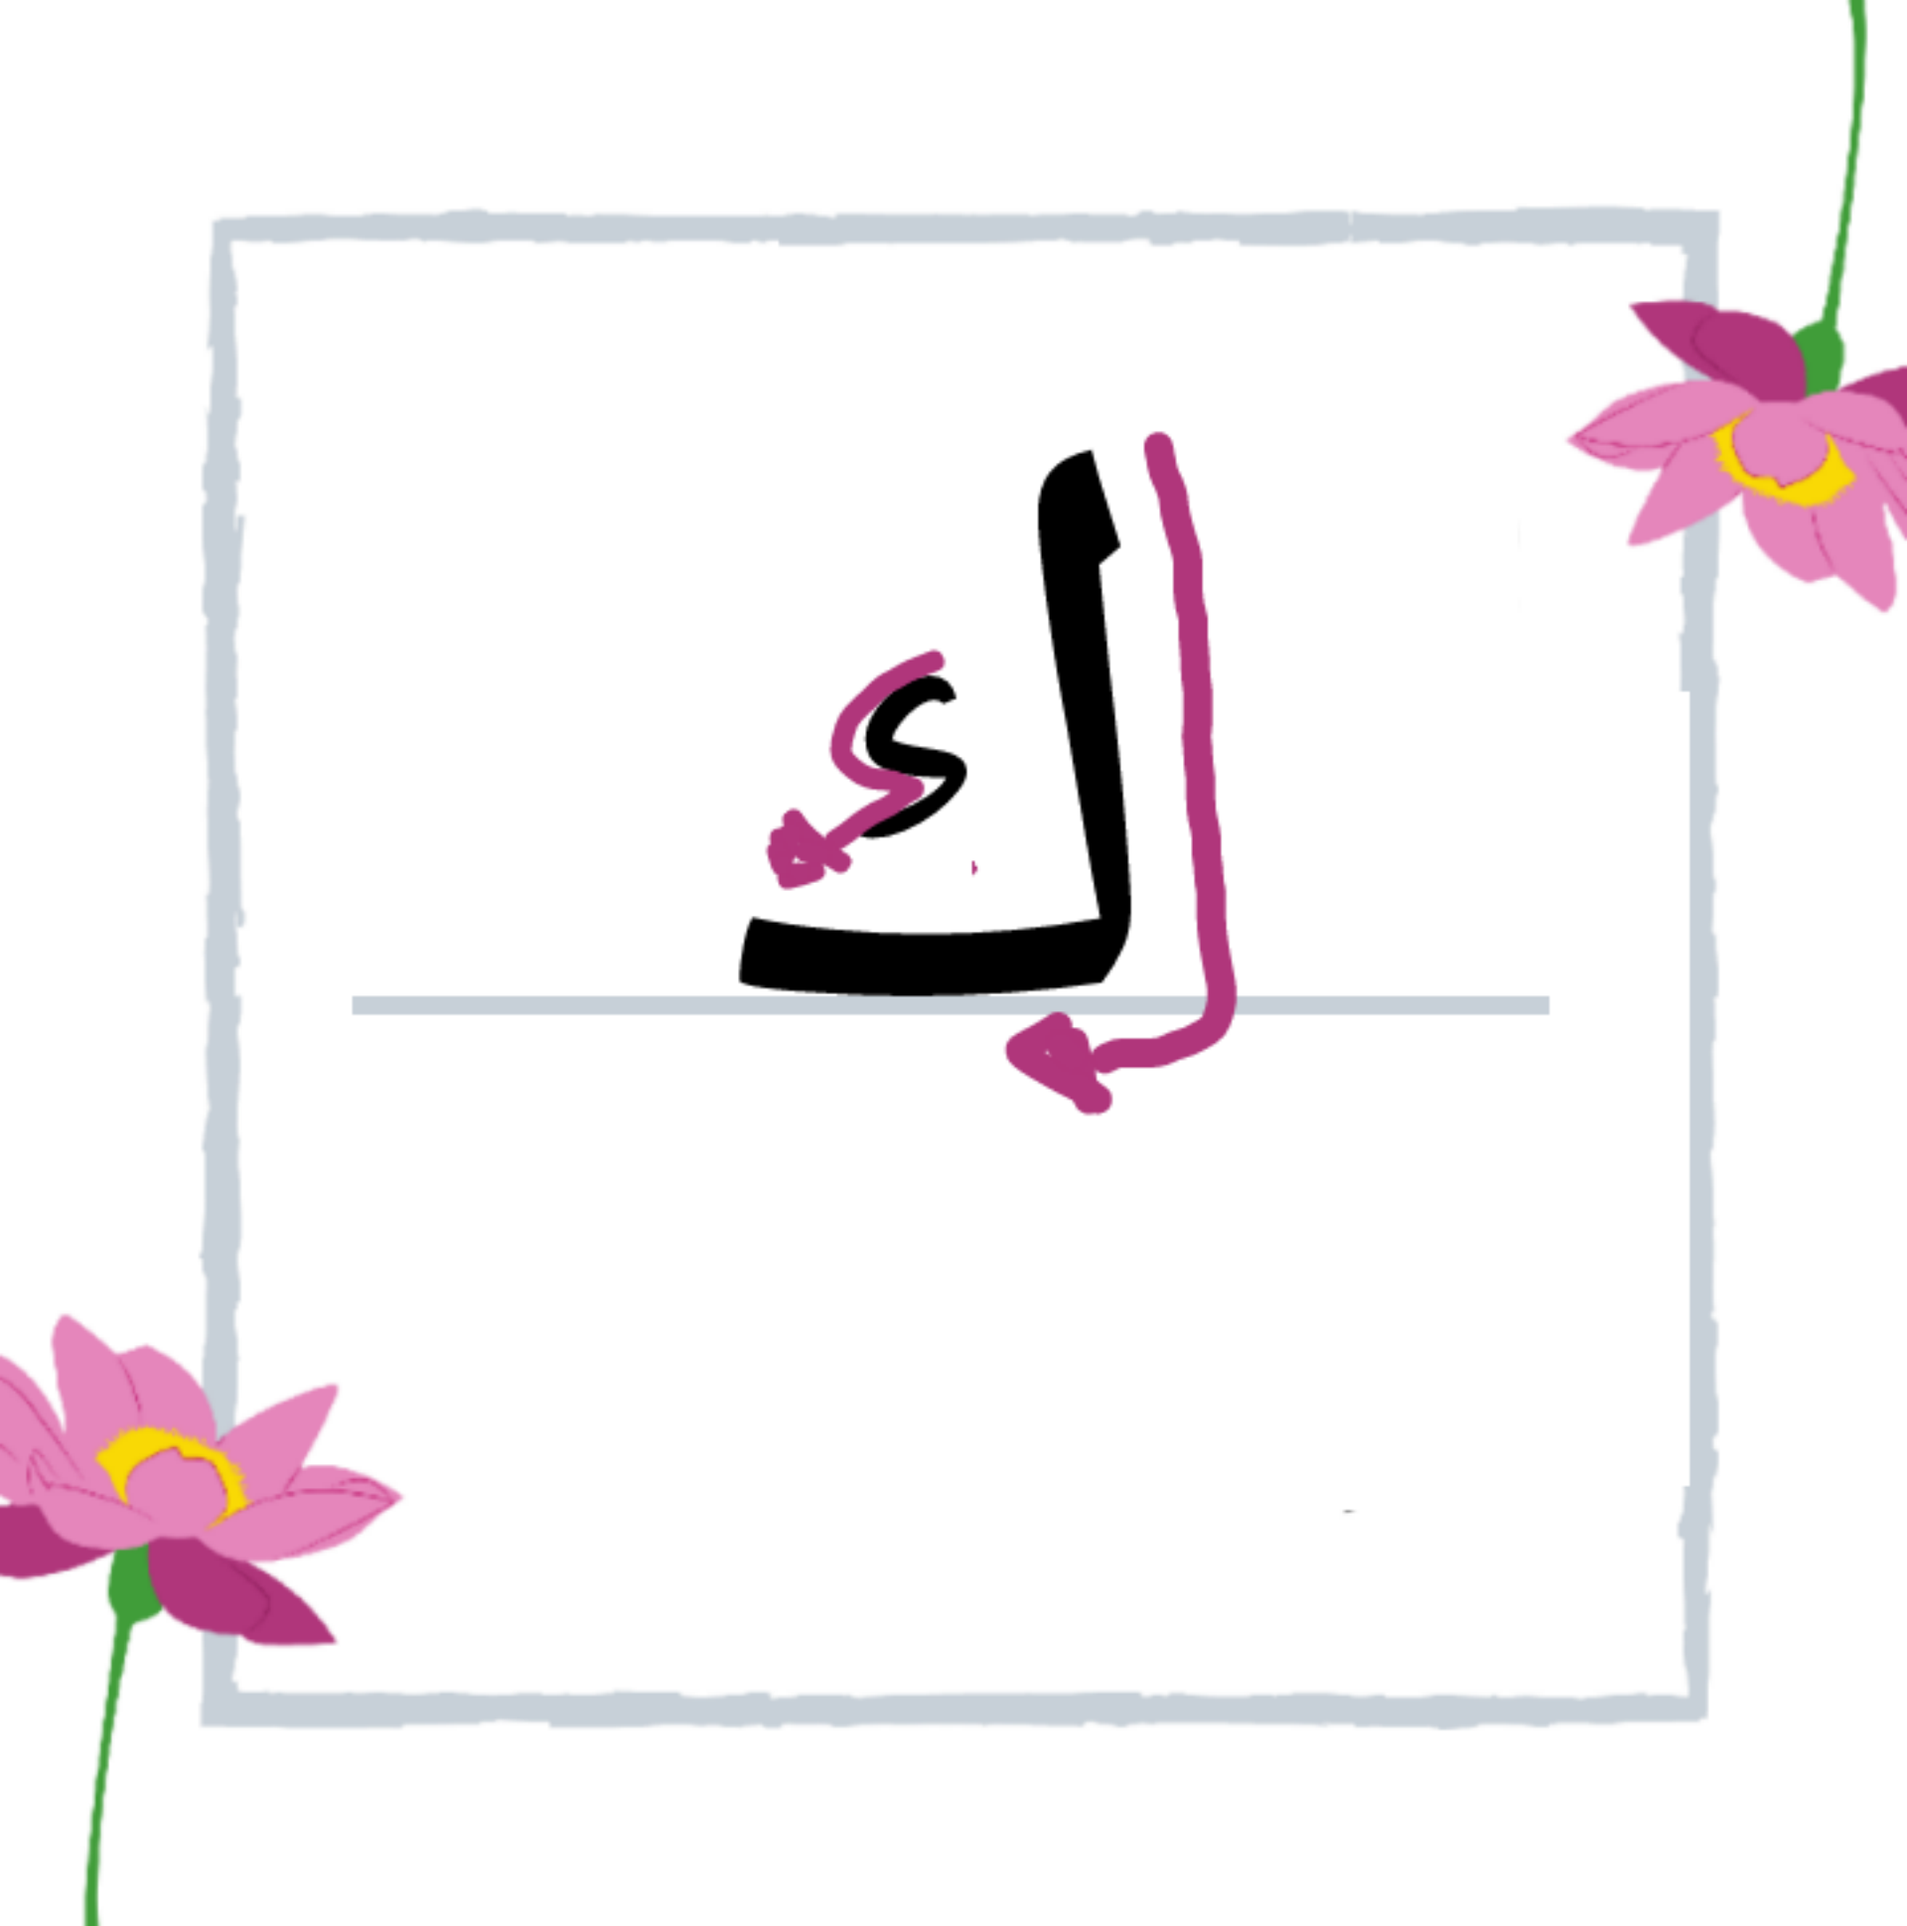
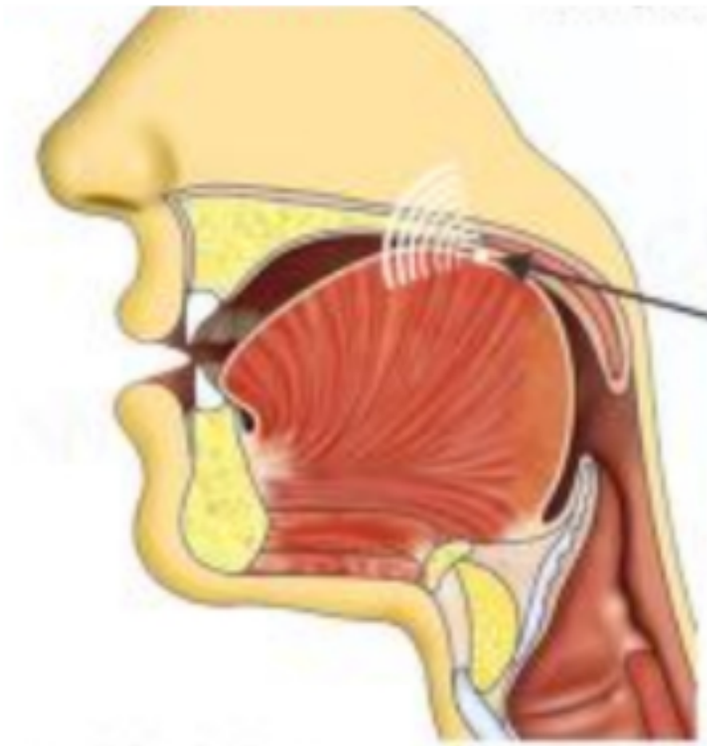
Lesson 18

The 22nd letter in the Arabic alphabet is the letter KAAF. The equivalent of the sound of the letter is the letter K like when we say 'kid'.





ك

اَكُ - اِكُ - اُكُ

With short vowels:

كَ كِ كُ

ك ـكـ ـك ك

End	Middle	Beginning
ـك ك	ـكـ كـ	كـ

*When the ـكـ comes in the middle, if preceded by a letter that doesn't allow joining then it will be written like in the beginning, and if it's preceded by a letter that doesn't allow joining when at the end it will be in its original form.

كَتِرَ أَكِ إِكَ
